Hamden Resident Anthony DiSalvo Elected to the Board of Directors of the Visiting Nurse Association of South Central Connecticut

New Haven (January 4, 2012) – John R. Quinn, President & CEO of the Visiting Nurse Association of South Central Connecticut (VNA/SCC), recently announced that Anthony DiSalvo, Ph.D of Hamden was elected to the Board of Directors for VNA/SCC, a non-profit, community-based home health agency that provides high quality health care services in the home and communities its serves.

“We are delighted that Tony has been elected to our Board,” Quinn said. “His wealth of expertise in business management as well as his experience leading other boards of directors will be direct a benefit to our home care agency.”

DiSalvo has over 35 years of experience in general management and extensive Board Trustee experience with special expertise in issues of governance. He serves as Chairman of the Board of Directors for the Regional Water Authority. Before retiring, DiSalvo was President of CELLO, LIMITED in New Haven, Conn., a privately held international audio company. He is a former faculty member in the School of Medicine at Yale University and former administrator of the Connecticut Mental Health Center.

About VNA Health Systems

VNA Health Systems is comprised of the Visiting Nurse Association of South Central Connecticut (VNA/SCC) and CareSource, Inc.

Founded in 1904, the VNA/SCC, which is the original VNA of New Haven, Milford and the Valley, is a state licensed, non-profit, community-based home health care agency. The VNA/SCC staff consists of highly skilled nurses, therapists, medical social workers and home health aides. A vital resource to the communities it serves, the VNA/SCC provides a wide range of specialized clinical services, community programs, the Nurturing Families Network and subsidized care, through United Way funding, to those who are in need. The agency employs over 230 staff members, has an average daily census of over 1,000 patients and makes over 170,000 home visits per year. The agency is the founder of the Nightingale Awards for Excellence in Nursing. The VNA/SCC is supported in part by The Community Foundation for Greater New Haven, local United Way organizations, corporate sponsors and individual donors.
